LETTERS.

TO THE BANK DIRECTORS,

On the pernicious consequences of the prevailing system of Banking Operations; and on the facility of reducing discounts to any extent, as soon as the Bank of the United States commences business.—By M. CAREY.

"If any embarrassment shall be produced by an excess of private securities, a reduction during the alarm is impossible; and an increase for a time will become indispensable."

Sir Francis Baring in the Report of the Bullion Committee.

LETTER I.

GENTLEMEN,

Once more I venture to trespass on you, and respectfully solicit your most serious and sober attention to a few facts connected with, and a few reflections arising from, the present system of banking operations of this city. I hope to be able to prove that it is eminently pernicious in its consequences—that the foundation on which it rests is utterly unsound—and that a system diametrically opposite would be both safe and salutary.

To give the subject as lucid an order as it is susceptible of, I shall divide it into three parts.

I. I shall give a view of the calamitous state of the trade and commerce of the city.

II. I shall attempt to prove that in a season of pressure and difficulty, the duty and interest of Banks equally forbid the adoption of a system of curtailment, and loudly and imperiously call for liberality and indulgence.

III. That the ideas entertained of the operation of the Bank of the U. States, are utterly destitute of foundation.

To this investigation I hope you will bring minds open to conviction—not under the effects of undue bias from prevailing opinions or past practice. It would be a sin almost undeserving of forgiveness or apology, to continue a pernicious error, because it had been already too long acted on.

You have a heavy weight of responsibility on your shoulders. And it behoves you to consider well the course proper to be steered at this eventful and calamitous crisis, when the trading and commercial world presents a dreary and alarming prospect to view, and when every false step you take, may inflict destruction on some, perhaps on many of your fellow citizens.

It is an awful truth of which the contemplation makes one shudder, that the ruin of a large portion of this community or their salvation from that impending ruin, depends upon your sovereign fiat. The most despotic monarch that during a century has wielded the sceptre of France or Spain, has not had a more absolute command over the fortunes of his subjects, than you hold over the fate and fortunes of a large portion of those who are indebted to you. By a rigorous adherence to the plan pursued for some time past, whereby great numbers of the very best notes that can be offered for discount, are rejected, the spread of bankruptcy must be greatly increased. Whereas by an abandonment of this plan & very moderate extension of bank accomodation, you may once more dispel the gloom that surrounds, and the ruin that threatens this community.

September 20.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 29.

Latest.—By the ships Sachem, Davis, and Comet, Center, the editors of the Gazette have received French papers to the 20th, and London papers to the 16th of September. These papers contain a variety of interesting matter on the subject of the attack upon Algiers.

The News, a London paper of the 15th of September, contains the loss of many vessels on the English coast, during a gale of the 31st of August and 1st September. No American vessels, however, are mentioned as having been damaged. Several lives were lost from on board foreign vessels.

It is stated, in a French paper, that Lord Exmouth, after having made Peace with the Dey of Algiers, will proceed against Tunis although that Regency has already sent to him a flag of truce.

The Dusseldorf Gazette announces, that the meeting of the monarchs of the north, will take place at Vatsovie, after the arrival there of the emperor Alexander.

The harvest, both in England and France, according to the public papers, promises to be more favorable than was expected.

Advices from the Baltic, state, that the crops in the north of Europe would be very abundant; and yet, according to a letter from Bordeaux, rice had risen and the reason offered was, the shortness of the crops in the Baltic.

A Paris article, of the 15th September states, that Montpellier brandies continue to decline, as well as rice and potashes.

Private letters are contradictory—some apprehend a scarcity of grain—others speak of abundance.

Cotton, in France, was, for Pernambucos, 72 cents; Sea Islands, 74 cents Georgia, 48, Russia posinshes, 77 francs and 50 centimes.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

A gentleman of this city, having favored the editors of the New York Gazette with the following, they present it to their readers as the most correct, and the only official account of the proceedings of Lord Exmouth at Algiers.

Extract of a letter from Barcelona, dated Sept. 7, to a gentleman of this city.

"Two days ago, at an early hour, his majesty's brig Heron, of 18 guns, arrived here from Algiers, and soon after Lord Exmouth's flag captain landed from her bearing dispatches. He set out in one hour for London. As I am on terms of intimacy with the British acting consul, the following particulars were communicated to me soon after, with an injunction not to divulge them until yesterday morning.

"Lord Exmouth, in the Queen Charlotte three decker, and his whole squadron, appeared off Algiers on the 27th of August, and as he had a plan of all their forts and fortifications, every vessel in the squadron had its station assigned, prior to its approaching the city. The orders were that every vessel should run in as close to the batteries as possible, allowing a foot or two of water more than their draft, and there anchor. The flag ship Queen Charlotte anchored within about 20 yards of one of the strongest batteries, to the great astonishment of the Algerines. The Impregnable, also a 3 decker, anchored about a similar distance before another very strong battery—the other vessels took their stations as before arranged, and immediately opened a most terrible and destructive fire. Lord Exmouth, previous to firing, observing that a number of persons, to the amount of about three thousand, appparently come down from the country, and were mere spectators, being unarmed, waved to them to retire, as they were within reach of his guns. His humane intentions were not attended to, & as he could not delay the attack, he opened his batteries, and his first broadside killed and wounded four hundred and upwards of these poor wretches.

"Soon after a party landed and carried the battery which commands the town by storm.

"The firing continued on both sides, without intermission, for nine hours and a half—it was then near midnight, when the Algerine batteries were completely silenced. Lord Exmouth's squadron immediately ceased firing. It may appear astonishing, though nevertheless true, that the ammunition on board most of the vessels was completely exhausted. What with the firing and the congreve rockets, the sight was awfully grand—the darkness of the night rendered the scene more so.

"The Algerine loss is computed at seven thousand, and that of the British, in killed and wounded, at nine hundred—the principal part killed—not by cannon shot, but musket balls. The squadron scarcely suffered in their hulls or rigging. Lord Exmouth's ship sustained a loss of killed and wounded, rising 400 men. The Impregnable also suffered very much. Three captains of men of war were killed—their names I have not as yet learnt. The Dutch squadron lost only 16 men killed and 24 wounded. Lord Exmouth was wounded in the arm.

"The whole of the Algerine squadron are said to be burnt; and their batteries are totally destroyed. A small part of the town has been injured.

"Yesterday morning another man of war brig arrived with dispatches from Lord Exmouth, for their minister, Mr. Wellesley, to the court of Spain. A messenger was immediately sent off with them to Madrid.

"The following is a copy of a notice sent to all the commanders of the squadron. It is an extract of the treaty made with the Dey. As a favor I obtained a copy of it.

"The Commander in Chief is happy to inform the fleet of the final termination of their strenuous exertions, by the signature of peace, confirmed under a salute of 21 guns, on the following conditions, dictated by the Prince Regent:

"1. The abolition for ever of Christian slavery.

"2. The delivery to my flag of all slaves in the dominions of the Dey, of whatever nation they belong, by noon to-morrow.

"3. To deliver to my flag all money received by them for the redemption of slaves, since the commencement of this year, by noon to-morrow.

"4. Reparation has been made to the British Consul, for all the losses he has sustained in consequence of his confinement.

"5. The Dey has made a Public Apology, in presence of his ministers and officers, and begged pardon of the Consul, in terms dictated by the captain of the Queen Charlotte.

(Signed) "EXMOUTH.

"Algiers, 28th August, 1815."

"The last article must have humbled the Dey not a little. He is at last brought to his bearings.

"The man of war brig Heron, which arrived two days ago proceeded immediately for Genoa, having on board the money returned by the Dey, or the ransom of the Genoese, &c. The squadron under lord Exmouth, are now supposed to be at Mahon. They were to sail on the 2d inst. from Algiers for that port."

POSTSCRIPT.

The editors of the Gazette are indebted to captain Center, for a London paper of the 16th ult. which contains the subsequent official details:

Lord Exmouth's Victory.—We have today, the high gratification of announcing by an extraordinary Gazette, published last night, the arrival of the dispatches of Lord Exmouth, which communicate the successful result of his Lordship's operations before Algiers.

Capt. Brisbane, with the despatches arrived at the Admiralty on Saturday night.

It appears that Lord Exmouth, after encountering some opposition from the adverse elements, placed himself before Algiers, by day break on the 27th of last month; and that the irresistible gallantry of his fleet soon brought the ruffian enemy to terms.

At the attainment of the important objects of his expedition, we have to lament the loss of many gallant officers & men; but this we must consider a partial evil for universal good."

The British Consul was happily restored in safety; and it is not an uninteresting circumstance, that his wife and daughter were brought away in the disguise of midshipmen. A child of the Consul unconsciously betrayed its intended escape in a basket, by its cries. It was, however sent off next morning by the Dey, who it appears, was disposed to make a virtue of necessity.

The loss of the enemy is between 5 and 7000 men, besides the destruction of his implements of piracy, his vessels.

Memorandum of the Destruction in the Mole of Algiers, in the Attack of the 27th Aug. 1816.

Four large frigates of 44 guns, 5 large corvettes, from 24 to 30, all the gun and mortar boats, except 7, 30 destroyed, several merchant brigs and schrs. a great number of small vessels of various descriptions, all the pontoons, lighters, etc. store houses and arsenal, with all the timber and various marine articles, destroyed in part, a great many gun carriages, mortar beds, casks, & ships stores of all descriptions.

EXMOUTH.

His Britannic Majesty's Ship Queen Charlotte, Algiers Bay, Aug. 28, 1816

SIR,—For your atrocities at Bona on defenceless Christians, & your unbecoming disregard to the demands I made yesterday in the name of the Prince Regent of England, the fleet under my orders has given you a signal chastisement, by the total destruction of your navy, store houses, and arsenal, with half your batteries.

As England does not war for the destruction of cities, I am unwilling to visit your personal cruelties upon the inoffensive inhabitants of the country, and I therefore offer you the terms of peace which I conveyed to you yesterday in my sovereign's name: without the acceptance of those terms, you can have no peace with England.

If you receive this offer as you ought, you will fire three guns; and I shall consider your not making this signal as a refusal, and shall renew my operations at my own convenience.

I offer you the above terms, provided neither the British Consul, nor the officers and men so wickedly seized by you from the boats of a British ship of war, have met with any cruel treatment, or any of the Christian slaves in your power; and I repeat my demand, that the Consul and officers and men, may be sent off to me, conformable to ancient treaties.

I have, &c. EXMOUTH.

To his Highness the Dey of Algiers.

Queen Charlotte, Algiers Bay, September 1, 1816.

Sir—I have the honor to acquaint you for their Lordships information, that I have sent Capt. Brisbane with my duplicate despatches, as I am afraid that Admiral M[illegible], in the Leander, who has charge of the originals, may experience a long voyage, the wind having set in to the westward a few hours after he sailed.

Capt. Brisbane, to whom I feel greatly indebted for his exertions, and the able assistance I have received from him throughout the whole of this service, will be able to inform their Lordships upon all points that I may have omitted.

Admiral Sir Charles Penrose arrived too late to take his share in the attack upon Algiers, which I lament, as much on his account as my own; his services would have been desirable in every respect.

I have the satisfaction to state, that all the slaves in the city of Algiers, and immediately in its vicinity, are embarked; as also 357,000 dollars for Naples, and 25,500 for Sardinia. The treaties will be signed to-morrow, and I hope to be able to sail in a day or two.

The Minden has sailed for Gibraltar to be refitted, and will proceed from thence to her ultimate destination.

The Albion will be refitted at Gibraltar for the reception of Sir Charles Penrose's flag. The Glasgow I shall be obliged to bring home with me. I have the honor, &c.

A letter from Haverhill, N. Hampshire, dated Oct. 18, says: "The Snow fell here last night about 12 inches deep, & is now, (8 o'clock evening) about 6 inches. Sleighs have been running quite brisk."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Detroit, to one of the publishers of the Albany Gazette, dated Oct 1, 1816.

"You cannot look at this quaster for any thing new or interesting, unless you find it in a description of the country, which is becoming of great importance in many points of view. The soil and climate are very fine for the cultivation of every kind of grain, and fruit, and grass. The rivers and lakes abound in fish of the most delicious kinds, among which are the white fish and trout. Wheat grows very luxuriantly, and the Indian corn is nearly as large as that in Virginia and Maryland. The fruit of this country is famed for its goodness, and is produced in great quantity, the bank of the river being a perfect orchard from Spring Wells to Lake St. Clair, about 12 miles above this city. Indeed the country only wants industry to make it equal to any in the United States.

Its therefore insolated situation has prevented emigration, but as the troops under the command of General Macomb, are employed in cutting a road from Back River to Fort Meigs, and from thence to the thickly inhabited part of Ohio, the communication will be greatly facilitated with the southern states, while that of the eastern is kept up on the lakes. The communication with Lower Canada is easy, and where a ready market is found for every thing the farmer in this country can spare.

"Settlements are making on Lakes Huron and Michigan, of considerable extent: and the establishment of a new post at the mouth of Fox River, on Green Bay, will give that protection to our countrymen which policy would dictate and humanity require. The fur business has taken a different course, and instead of going to Montreal as formerly, it now comes this way to New York. The Indians retire as the country becomes settled, are harmless and inoffensive so long as they know there is force sufficient to command their civility. The government have ordered a survey of the public lands which are to be exposed for sale, and which opens a wide field for the industrious and enterprising. The contemplated canal, if carried into operation will be of great advantage to the immense country west and north of us, as well as a mine of inexaustible wealth to the state of New York. The whole trade of this region including lake Superior and Michigan, and all the Western waters, until it takes its course down the Mississippi, will naturally be drawn into the great canal."

Captain Merlic, of the schr. Adeline, sixteen days from Baracoa, (Cuba,) informs, that a gale visited that place, (the severest in the memory of the oldest inhabitant) on the 12th Sept. last, doing great damage in the adjacent country. Such was its violence that the large trees of the forest were either levelled with the earth or severed in the trunk. Markets dull. Capt. M. was boarded on his homeward passage, in lat. 26, by a Carthagenian privateer, and treated politely.

We learn, by a letter from Port-au-Prince, that this elementary conflict likewise extended its ravages to Hispaniola. The crops for the most part have been destroyed, and the residue materialy injured: which, it was believed there, would keep up, if not encrease, the existing high prices of American produce. Flour was selling at $32. Rice, 10, a 11. Shingles, cypress. 10. Scantling, 40. Boards, 40 dolls. per thousand feet.

Arrived, schr. Spartan, Johnston, Port-au-Prince. 14 days, in ballast—captain J states that on the 18th and 19th ult. the port was visited by a tremendous hurricane, which either sunk, drove ashore or dismasted almost every vessel in the harbor. The brig Sphinx, M'Comb, of New York was sunk, with a cargo on board, amounting to 20,000 dollars—she had been got up and was repairing damages when the Spartan sailed. A fleet from France, it was reported was off Port au Prince, and that a minister was on board to treat with Petion. Capt. J. states that he learnt just before he sailed, that Petion was on the 14th inst. to be made president for life. The Spartan, on her passage was chased and fired at by a sch. under Spanish colors.

By the Eugene, from Buenos Ayres, and the Joseph from Laguira, we have been favoured with letters and papers, of a latter date than any heretofore received. Important extracts follow:

Extract of a letter from the American Consul, dated Buenos Ayres Sept. 4

"The threatening expedition of the Portugues does not appear; and even if it should, this government does not much apprehend that any hostility will be used against this part of the country, being determined, unless attacked to stand neutral during the contest. Property I consider as safe here as in the United States, thus far."

Extract from another letter—dated "Buenos Ayres, Aug 19.

"I have omitted to say any thing about the Portuguese expedition: indeed we have generally forgot it; it put into St. Catharine's, whether intentionally or by stress of weather, is not known. Many think that its destination was for St. Catharine's, there to maintain the troops at a cheaper rate and in a better climate than Rio Janeiro; but it appears to me the Portugues government, if such had been its intention, would have advised this government. The government of Buenos Ayres, since its declaration of Independence, has written, I am told to demand of the Portuguese government the object and destination of the expedition."

Translated for the Baltimore Patriot.

From the "Caraccas Gazette" of Sept. 16

Brigadier Don Francisco Thomas Morales, with the large corps appointed to operate under his orders, set out from Chaguaramas on the 28th of August, at the same time that his vanguard, commanded by Major Quero, moved forward from El-Valle de la Pasqua—In the meanwhile the remnant of the enemy of Quebrada Honda, united to the parties of Infantry bands, and some others in that province, remained protected by the inundations and rivers and arrived at El-Chaparro, and San Diego and the province of Barcelona.

They continued to move forward and probably with a view to pass by Maturin and into the immense plains of El-Tigre.

On the 5th inst. all these troops were at St. Maria de Ipire, the last town in the Province, and the same day the flying column of Lieut. Col. Lopez, which had marched from Aragua, encountered near El Chaparon the whole group of the Banditti.—After a most obstinate shock and great loss on both sides, one part of the column was dispersed, and the other part fell back to the town of Aragua and the rest to the village of N. Pilar.

The soldiers pursued that route, keeping at as great a distance as possible from the troops of Brigadier Morales and then Col. Lopez finding himself unable to cover Barcelona, gave the necessary information to that city and proceeded with his forces to join the corps of Gen. Morales.

It was at that time that a large portion of the population of Barcelona gave an example which will never be forgotten in the history of Venezuela: it will be perpetuated as worthy of the government of the best of all kings, and shew to what a degree his enemies are detested, even at the price of every thing most dear.

That city in the space of a few hours became as a desert: its inhabitants abandoned it with joy, and to their great honor, they made the most heroic sacrifices, removing, some to Laguayro, some to the villages in the way, and others to the mountains.

As late as the 18th, at mid-day, the wretches had not entered Barcelona, and it was uncertain whether they had not proceeded towards the province of Cumana.—The troops of the king will seek them wherever they may go, and will inflict on them the chastisement they deserve.

On the 7th the royal squadron anchored at Cumana, after having left in Pampatar provisions of every sort sufficient for some months. Two schooners and four gun boats immediately went in pursuit of some light vessels of the enemy, which invested the coast of Cariaco, doing much injury to the plantations along there, and other vessels set sail for Barcelona and the intermediate coast.

News from Santafe has been received to the 1st August. We learn that the following rebels have been apprehended in Popayan—Montufar, (already put to the sword) Camillo Tories and his two brothers, a certain Ulloa, Espana Alcaval, Davila, and other various members of what is called the congress.

Communicated for the Patriot.

Extract of a letter dated.

"La Guayra, Sept. 18.

"Since the date of my last respects by this opportunity, the Patriots have taken possession of Barcalona, after routing with great slaughter a detachment of Royalists sent to oppose them. They amounted to about 1500 men from the Oronoco, and it is said are commanded by the same M'Gregor, who the government officially stated to have been killed with the whole of his force in the battle of the 3d August, at Onoltadita, a place not 30 leagues from Carraccas, upon which they marched after landing on the coast, but, who on the contrary escaped into the interior with nearly the whole of his men. Within the last three days, eight vessels have arrived from Barcelona, with as many of the inhabitants as the shortness of the notice enabled them to get off.

It is stated however this morning, by an arrival from that quarter, that a force from Cumana had marched upon Barcelona, and that the insurgents, after plundering the town, had abandoned it with great precipation. The markets are still the same."

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to cary off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never ails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic gout, palsy, lumbagoo, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals, (the basis of other lotions) and of unparralled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent in oxication or any other destructive intemperance the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Sovereign remedy for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, sore throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Toothe Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one applicaiion, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infallibe Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Han's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
